

MODULAR BUILDING INSTITUTE CODE OF BUSINESS ETHICS

The Modular Building Institute has adopted these articles to promote and maintain high standards of professional service and ethical business conduct among its members.

- A member shall deal fairly with customers, colleagues, fellow members, and the general public.
- A member shall conduct his or her professional life in accordance with the interests of MBI, the commercial factory-built structures industry, and the general public.
- A member shall adhere to honesty and integrity and to generally accepted principles of professional conduct.
- A member shall not engage in any practice, which tends to corrupt the integrity of MBI, the commercial factory-built structures industry, or process of government.
- A member shall not intentionally misrepresent information concerning his or her financial and professional business background, or the background of his or her competitors.
- A member shall fully and fairly disclose all potential conflicts of interests in a timely manner.
- A member shall disclose to the association any practice which tends to corrupt the integrity of MBI or the industry.
- A member shall compete vigorously, & fairly, with other members.

ASHANTI TRADING CC

has been a member in good standing since

2013

A member subscribes to the Modular Building Institute's code of ethics, promoting high standards of professional service and business conduct toward its customers and between fellow members.

2013 Member

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Tom Hardiman".

Tom Hardiman, CAE, Executive Director